NEW SUPERGUN MAY HURL PROJECTILE OF FIVE TONS FROM 200 TO 300 MILES

Discharge Can Be Stopped in Sheet of Steel With Precision of Trolley Car

New York, July 7.—Scientists and inventors today discussed the remarkable qualities of a new gun which Dr. Miller Reese Hutchinson, former chief engineer for Thomas A. Edison, claims to have developed to hurl a projectile of five tons from 200 to 300 miles. Its velocity, he declared, ranges from one to five miles a second.

The noise it made at a demonstration yesterday sounded much like the click of a cash register, though only a miniature weapon, with an eight inch barrel, was used. Its projectile may be stopped in a sheet of steel with the precision of a trolley car. The gun is the invention of John Temple, an Englishman, who developed the idea in this country.

The demonstration, in the presence of scientists and newspaper men, was curiously enough, conducted on the 51st floor of the Woolworth building. The testing grounds consisted of a box of sand on the floor of the office, over which was placed a sheet of steel three quarters of an inch thick.

Pointing the gun downward toward the offices filled with people beneath him, Dr. Hutchinson discharged the weapon and the cash register click was heard. In the sheet of steel there was lodged a projectile three inches long and one half inch in diameter. The ends stuck out on either side of the steel.

Dr. Hutchinson explained that the tail end of the projectile was threaded and served the purpose of a bolt. This feature he declared, could be used in bolting a plate over a hole in the hull of a leading ship at sea.

Dr. Hutchinson said a demonstration was held recently in the New York navy yard of the practicability of a deep sea riveting with the gun. A diver went 35 feet below the surface and fired a shot. The diver refused to believe the gun had been discharged, as he said there had been no percussion and no recoil. He was shown the plate of the ship he had fired into, however, and later a pressure of eight tons was required to force the projectile from its place.

The demonstration gun used by Dr. Hutchinson had a velocity of one mile a second. He declared the high power rifles now in vogue obtain their velocity through the use of small projectiles, long barrels and about three times as much powder as is used in the new weapon.

The principle of burning the powder, which does not permit waste, before the projectile ever starts to move, has been applied to the gun.

The elimination of a loud report he said, was obtained by confinement of the expanding gases to the chamber from which the projectile emanated. The weapon resembled the nozzle of a pneumatic hammer.

MYSTERIOUS CRAFT SIGHTED ON ATLANTIC COAST MAY SOLVE RIDDLE

(By United Press)

Washington, July 7.—Government wireless stations along the Atlantic coast today heralded warning that a mysterious craft had been located which might prove a clue to the "vanishing ships."

The warning was flashed out after a telephone message was received from Munson line officials at Baltimore, who said the mysterious stranger had approached their steamer "Mulabro" 300 miles east of Philadelphia, and when hailed refused to answer signals, shaded lights and vanished.

Shippers Watching for Pirate

Baltimore, July 7.—Skippers out from Baltimore today are watching for the "phantom ship," reported by Capt. Giles of the Munson liner "Malabro." Department of navigation officials are sifting the matter to the bottom. The report received was to the effect that the "phantom ship" traveled with great speed, had no lights or signals that she looked over Capt. Giles' ship and then darted away in the night.

The captain's statement has revived interest in the mystery of twenty ships lost in the Atlantic and the weird story that it might be a pirate ship, or a soviet pirate cruiser. All shippers are taking precautions to defend themselves.

Capt. Tells of Meeting Ship

New York, July 7.—Capt. A. Diamond of the Munson liner described the ship's experience in meeting the so-called pirate ship 75 miles south by west from New York. An official account has been transmitted to the bureau of navigation at Washington.

On the morning of Thursday, June 30, Capt. Diamond was on watch. It had been foggy all night. An hour before he heard at intervals a peculiar whistle and then saw a ship going at 12 knots an hour. The mysterious vessel came up at the port side and tried to cross the liner's bow. A half mile away she stopped her engines, sized us up, then at 2 o'clock turned tail.

$50,000 NONPARTY FUND SQUANDERED SAYS LEAGUE PAPER

THREE MEMBERS OF STATE COM- MITTEE NAMED IN COURIER- NEWS EDITION

ARTICLE DECLARES MONEY COL- LECTED TO FIGHT RECALL IS EXHAUSTED

Fargo, July 7.—Charges that three members of the state executive committee of the Nonpartisan league had squandered $50,000 of the league's recall election campaign fund were made in a special edition of the Fargo Courier-News, a Nonpartisan league daily newspaper, today.

Four or five thousand copies of the Fargo Courier-News of this morning were confiscated and burned by the majority members of the Nonpartisan league state committee, it became known today, the seizure following the discovery that committee employees in charge of the newspaper had published charges reflecting upon their superiors.

Fund Held Exhausted

In an edition intended solely for rural circulation, nearly three full columns were devoted to the charge against the majority members of the Nonpartisan league state committee, A. A. Liederbach, Ole Kaldor and Chris Levang.

The article asserted that while $50,000 had been contributed in recent weeks by league members to the fund intended for use in fighting the forthcoming recall election, none of the money was on hand.

The article further asserted that it was necessary to call a special election of league members, preferably at Bismarck, July 28, to elect three successors to Liederbach, Levang and Kaldor, who would work in harmony with the other two members of the committee, Walter Maddock and R. H. Walker.

Papers Are Destroyed

At 4 a. m. today, Liederbach and Kaldor, supported by 10 or 12 men, entered the Courier-News office and took possession. C. K. Gummerson was displaced as editor, and the composing room and press crews accepted Liederbach as their new chief. He ordered the destruction of forms carrying charges against himself and other members. Papers already printed, stacked and ready to be mailed, and carrying these charges, were removed to the city dump and burned.

Today, Liederbach and Kaldor are in command of the paper. A meeting of the state committee has been called for tomorrow, when it is expected W. C. McClintock, former editor will be reinstated.

Walter Maddock, who with Walker has opposed the course taken by Liederbach, Levang and Kaldor, is the director of the league publications, and as such had the hiring and dismissal of league paper employees.

Liederbach Makes Statement

Fargo, N. D., July 7.—A. A. Liederbach, chairman of the executive committee of the nonpartisan league, has made a statement relative to the burning of an edition of the Fargo Courier-News.

He said the committee discovered that the manager of the paper was taking money from the nonpartisan league and depositing it in a local bank. They had him arrested. Then came a special edition of the paper by employees which cast reflections on the committee. The papers were seized and burned.

Hartford, Conn., July 7.—Girls with bobbed hair will hereafter get a cold reception at the Aetna Insurance Co. offices, said the president, S. Daniels, in a statement made to the United Press. Three thousand girls are employed there.

The only thing the insurance man failed to solve was how a bobbed girl was to suddenly switch her hair back to normalcy.

IRISH PEACE HINGES ON DUBLIN CONFERENCE

EXPECTED IRELAND WILL RE- MAIN IN EMPIRE BUT BE SELF GOVERNED

(By ED. L. KEENE,
United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, July 7.—The fate of peace in Ireland hinges on tomorrow's conference in Dublin. Eamon DeValera, "president of the Irish republic," will resume his conversations with the unionists.

Jan Smuts, premier of South Africa, is expected to attend and to make known the results of his conference with the British government.

It is believed the proposed London conference will be held at once by the two Irish factions, the government, and Premier Smuts occupying the role of intermediary. It is believed a cessation of raids on both sides will follow.

The British government is understood to be re-organizing its plan for home rule, that Ireland is to remain in the empire and that there is to be no coercion of Ulster.

GEN. SMUTS AND KING DISCUSS SITUATION

London, July 7.—King George and Premier Smuts discussed the Irish question at Buckingham palace, whether the South African premier had been summoned for a half hour conference. The king wished to learn the result of negotiations held.

Disarmament Hangs On Anglo-Jap Treaty

Washington, July 7.—The whole question of disarmament hinges on the Anglo-Japanese treaty, its renewal in present form will in a manner retard the United States from issuing a call for disarmament. Already the alliance may have proved a stumbling block to this government in its plans for disarmament.

Christian Endeavors Condemn Immoral Dances And Prize Fights

(By United Press)
New York, July 7.—Immoral dances, prize fights and other "modern evils" were condemned by the Christian Endeavor convention at the armory. Reform and uplift topics engrossed their attention. Close to 16,000 delegates have arrived.

Japanese "Trial by Ordeal."

Trial by ordeal still exists in some parts of Japan. If a theft takes place in a household, all the servants are required to write a certain word with the same brush. The conscience is supposed to betray its workings in the waves of the ideographs written. Tracing an ideograph involves such an effort to muscular directness and undivided attention that this device often leads to the discovery of the guilty person.

Invoke President's Influence in The Bonus Fight

(By United Press)

Washington, July 7.—President Harding's influence is expected to be invoked in the soldiers bonus bill fight.

It has been reported that Harding had counseled congressional leaders to let the bonus question rest until some solution of tax problems was arrived at.

Attempt to Defeat Bill

Washington, July 7.—Senator Pittman of Nevada, in a speech in the senate, charged that efforts have been made to defeat the soldier bonus bill, that the letter of Secretary Mellon injecting politics in the measure was making its influence felt, and that the president had personally attempted to shelve the bill.

Tariff Bill Marks Opening of Heavy Fight in Congress

(By HERBERT W. WALKER,
United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 7.—The gong has sounded in the house for another heavyweight political bout, and the tariff is in the spotlight. The republican permanent tariff bill marks the opening of a congressional contest. Opponents made a sweeping attack in their minority report.

The democrats plan to fight a battle every step of the way. The first furor rose on the oil tariff and protests are heard from those interested in Mexican oil fields.

MAY HAVE CLUE TO VANISHING SHIPS

MYSTERIOUS CRAFT SIGHTED ON ATLANTIC COAST MAY SOLVE RIDDLE

(By United Press)

Washington, July 7.—Government wireless stations along the Atlantic coast today heralded warning that a mysterious craft had been located which might prove a clue to the "vanishing ships."

The warning was flashed out after a telephone message was received from Munson line officials at Baltimore, who said the mysterious stranger had approached their steamer "Mulabro" 300 miles east of Philadelphia, and when hailed refused to answer signals, shaded lights and vanished.

Shippers Watching for Pirate
Baltimore, July 7.—Shippers out from Baltimore today are watching for the "phantom ship," reported by Capt. Giles of the Munson liner "Mulabro." Department of navigation officials are sifting the matter to the bottom. The report received was to the effect that the "phantom ship" traveled with great speed, had no lights or signals that she looked over Capt. Giles' ship and then darted away in the night.

The captain's statement has revived interest in the mystery of twenty ships lost in the Atlantic and the weird story that it might be a pirate ship, or a soviet pirate cruiser. All shippers are taking precautions to defend themselves.

Capt. Tells of Meeting Ship

New York, July 7.—Capt. A. Diamond of the Munson liner described the ship's experience in meeting the so-called pirate ship 75 miles south by west from New York. An official account has been transmitted to the bureau of navigation at Washington.

On the morning of Thursday, June 20, Capt. Diamond was on watch. It had been foggy all night. An hour before he heard at intervals a peculiar whistle and then saw a ship going at 12 knots an hour. The mysterious vessel came up at the port side and tried to cross the liner's bow. A half mile away she stopped her engines, sized us up, then at 2 o'clock turned tail.

$50,000 NONPARTY FUND SQUANDERED SAYS LEAGUE PAPER

THREE MEMBERS OF STATE COM- MITTEE NAMED IN COURIER- NEWS EDITION

ARTICLE DECLARES MONEY COL- LECTED TO FIGHT RECALL IS EXHAUSTED

Fargo, July 7.—Charges that three members of the state executive committee of the Nonpartisan league had squandered $50,000 of the league's recall election campaign fund were made in a special edition of the Fargo Courier-News, a Nonpartisan league daily newspaper, today.

Four or five thousand copies of the Fargo Courier-News of this morning were confiscated and burned by the majority members of the Nonpartisan league state committee, it became known today, the seizure following the discovery that committee employees in charge of the newspaper had published charges reflecting upon their superiors.

Fund Held Exhausted

In an edition intended solely for rural circulation, nearly three full columns were devoted to the charge against the majority members of the Nonpartisan league state committee, A. A. Leiderbach, Ole Kaldor and Chris Levang.

The article asserted that while $50,000 had been contributed in recent weeks by league members to the fund intended for use in fighting the forthcoming recall election, none of the money was on hand.

The article further asserted that it was necessary to call a special election of league members, preferably at Bismarck, July 28, to elect three successors to Leiderbach, Levang and Kaldor, who would work in harmony with the other two members of the committee, Walter Maddock and R. H. Walker.

Papers Are Destroyed

At 4 a. m. today, Leiderbach and Kaldor, supported by 10 or 12 men, entered the Courier-News office and took possession. C. K. Gummerson was displaced as editor, and the composing room and press crews accepted Leiderbach as their new chief. He ordered the destruction of forms carrying charges against himself and other members. Papers already printed, stacked and ready to be mailed, and carrying these charges, were removed to the city dump and burned.

Today, Leiderbach and Kaldor are in command of the paper. A meeting of the state committee has been called for tomorrow, when it is expected W. C. McClintock, former editor will be reinstated.

Walter Maddock, who with Walker has opposed the course taken by Leiderbach, Levang and Kaldor, is the director of the league publications, and as such had the hiring and dismissal of league paper employees.

Liederbach Makes Statement

Fargo, N. D., July 7.—A. A. Leiderbach, chairman of the executive committee of the nonpartisan league, has made a statement relative to the burning of an edition of the Fargo Courier-News.

He said the committee discovered that the manager of the paper was taking money from the nonpartisan league and depositing it in a local bank. They had him arrested. Then came a special edition of the paper by employees which cast reflections on the committee. The papers were seized and burned.

Bobbed Hair Girls Barred by Aetna Insurance Company

(By PAUL R. MALONE,
United Press Staff Correspondent)

Hartford, Conn., July 7.—Girls with bobbed hair will hereafter get a cold reception at the Aetna Insurance Co. offices, said the president, S. Daniels, in a statement made to the United Press. Three thousand girls are employed there.

No more artificial blondes or girls with bobbed hair will be employed there. Girls must get back to normalcy so far as hair dressing and other fads are concerned. "Blondity" marked a lack of mentality.

The only thing the insurance man failed to solve was how a bobbed girl was to suddenly switch her hair back to normalcy.

THIS TRIBUNAL HAS ODD CASES

COURT OF CLAIMS IS NOT OFTEN IN THE PUBLIC PRINTS BUT IT WORKS HARD.

WAR INCREASES ITS DUTIES

Claimants for Debts or Damages Against the United States Government Must Submit Their Bills to It—Many Peculiar Cases Heard.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.
Washington.—There are United States courts which, as the manner of saying it, break into print much more frequently than the court of claims of the United States, but it is doubtful if there is a harder working court than this tribunal which, every time we have a war, finds its duties multiplied as one of the conflict's aftermaths.

There are five members of the court of claims. The chief justice is Edward K. Campbell of Virginia. He was appointed by President Wilson, as were three other members of the court, George E. Downey of Indiana, James Hay of Virginia, and Samuel J. Graham, also of Virginia. The only member of the court to be appointed by an administration previous to that of Mr. Wilson is Fenton W. Booth of Illinois, who was given his place on the bench by President Roosevelt.

The United States government cannot be sued in the ordinary sense. Congress gives permission to claimants to take their cases to the claims court which decides whether they have proper ground to demand damages or payment for bills rendered and unsatisfied. Then congress supposedly must appropriate the money to pay the successful claimants. It does not always do it, however.

There probably is no court in the land which has more picturesquely interesting cases before it than the court of claims. Occasionally the heirs of men who suffered government losses a hundred years or more ago come into court to get what is coming to them, or what they think is coming to them.

Many Old War Claims.
Not long ago claims arising out of Revolutionary day troubles were more than occasionally subjects of demands for restitution. A great great grandfather lost some money and therefore the great great grandfather must be paid. The claims arising out of seizures by the French navy of American commercial ships in the last years of the Eighteenth century only recently have been settled.

Several war claims, a large proportion of them originating in the South, have kept the court busy for a good many years, although now they are infrequent in appearance. As originally intended, the southern claimants for damages had to prove either that they were loyal to the United States, or that they were in districts occupied by the troops of the United States, or by the country's civil authorities, and that the losses incurred were the result of the seizures for the benefit of the troops or other forces of the United States government.

There were a good many church organizations in the southern states which recovered damages from the government for the destruction of injury to their church property by soldiers of the Union army. This damage was not malicious, but in winter campaigning the troops occasionally found that pews made good fire wood and more than occasionally they found that churches made good stables. It has been shown in almost every instance that church property was injured only under the stress of need. The government always has been kindly disposed toward church organizations which suffered in the Civil war.

Funny Case in the Philippines.
Occasionally cases of claims do not go to the court. Over in the Philippines a Spanish woman rented her house to the United States army as the headquarters for the teamsters of an outfit which was serving in the neighborhood. This proved to be a humorous case in a high sense. The Spanish woman claimed that the teamsters destroyed the "sideboards of her kitchen" by putting their feet against them when they went into the kitchen to have their after-dinner smokes.

The army held four inquiry sessions on this matter, bringing officers from various places to the seat of investigation. One teamster whose name was Pickle was a witness. He declared on oath when asked about the sideboards of the kitchen, "Them boards was punk."

Another teamster testified that red ants ate the sideboard up.

The government spent about $1,500 in expenses in investigating this claim. Senora Feliciana, for that was her name, was given $100 in gold for the damage to her kitchen sideboards. If there had been less red tape about the matter, the government would have saved most of its investigating expenses.

The Evidence.

"I hope I haven't broken his heart," said the chorus girl, who, strange to say, had turned down a young spendthrift.

"You certainly have," said her friend. "You have broken it right in half."

"In half. What do you mean?"

"I mean that he takes two girls out to supper every night now."

When Men Fought in Steel.

As a general statement it may be said that armor weighed from thirty pounds, for a suit of chain mail, and fifty for ordinary complete plate, to 100 or more for the heavy tournament equipment. The armor for the horse might weigh another hundred pounds. In spite of its weight, armor, when of good quality and worn (a most important point) over properly constructed, padded undergarments, was surprisingly mobile.

Agreeable.

When Men Fought in Steel.

As a general statement it may be said that armor weighed from thirty pounds, for a suit of chain mail, and fifty for ordinary complete plate, to 100 or more for the heavy tournament equipment. The armor for the horse might weigh another hundred pounds. In spite of its weight, armor, when of good quality and worn (a most important point) over properly constructed, padded undergarments, was surprisingly mobile.

Agreeable.

SUMMER MILITARY CAMP AT ST. PAUL

U. S. A. Officer Visited Brainerd on Wednesday to Stir Up Interest in Camp at Fort Snelling

AGES 16 TO 35 ARE DESIRED

Government Pays All Transportation and Camp Expenses of Those Entering Camp

Brainerd was visited Wednesday by a United States army officer to stir up interest in the summer military camps instituted by the government.

Possibly Brainerd people are not familiar with the summer military camp to be held at Fort Snelling, Minnesota, beginning August 1st and continuing one month, for young men between the ages of sixteen and thirty-five. This camp is open to any young men of the above age without military training. The government pays all expenses while at the camp and railroad fare going from and returning to their homes. The course covers the rudiments of military training and development of health and character, under experienced army officers who have been carefully selected for this particular work.

There are a great many young men who cannot afford an extended vacation this summer and this is a way that they can get a most unique vacation and at the same time receive the benefit of the instruction as noted above.

Those making applications write to J. Hinec, 648 Security building, Minneapolis, Minn., he will give any information in reference to this camp that he may desire. All applications must be submitted to the above address before July 10, 1921.

Instructions

1. This training camp is open to all physically fit male citizens who have passed their sixteenth birthday and who are not over 35 years of age.

2. Members of the National Guard will submit applications through military channels.

3. All accepted applicants are urged to take the regular antityphoid-paratyphoid prophylaxis and to be vaccinated against smallpox before arrival at camp. Accepted applicants may obtain the vaccination against smallpox and administration of antityphoid-paratyphoid prophylaxis free of charge by applying to the nearest army surgeon.

4. It is recommended that students pay their own way to the camp and be reimbursed after arrival there at the rate of 5 cents per mile. If not convenient to do so, the government will furnish railroad tickets and pay back the cost of meals and for the time consumed in travel.

5. Each student will bring to camp one piece of hand baggage with the following personal articles: 4 suits underwear; 2 pairs pajamas; 6 pairs socks; 6 handkerchiefs; 4 face towels; 2 bath towels, and shaving and toilet articles. Students are encouraged to bring musical instruments, athletic uniforms and equipment, and also bathing suits where the camp affords facilities for swimming.

6. Each applicant under 18 years of age must have the consent of his parent or guardian. The signature on this application in the place designated is sufficient.

7. Each applicant will submit a certificate to the effect that he is of good moral character and average general intelligence, signed by a schoolmaster, clergyman, priest or rabbi.

8. Before forwarding this application, the applicant must have the physical examination section filled in by an examining physician. The physical examination may be had, free of charge by applying in person to the nearest army post or station. In the event that the applicant does not desire to avail himself of this privilege, he may, at his own expense, be examined by any physician, but preferably by a medical officer of the National Guard or Reserve Corps or by a physician who has had military experience. Physical requirements will, in general, be as follows:

No applicant weighing less than 100 pounds or who is less than 58 inches in height at the age of 16, 59 inches at 17, or 60 inches at 18 or over, or who has less than 2 inches chest expansion, will be accepted. Slight defects (provided that they are not organic and do not impair the mobility of any limb) may be waived. Defects so waived will be noted in the physical examination section.

He must be able to see well, have good hearing, his heart must be able to stand the stress of physical exertion; he must be intelligent enough to understand and execute maneuvers, obey and give commands; and must be able to transport himself by walking as the exigencies of military life may demand. Vision must not fall below 20-100 in one eye and 20-40 in the other eye without glasses, or below 20-100 in each eye without glasses if not correctible with glasses to 20-40 in either eye. Hearing must not fall below 10-20 in either ear. Teeth must be in serviceable condition.

INTERESTING CASE CONCERNING IRONTON

Title to Land Hinges on Building Restriction, Suit is Over Alleged Infringement

HEARD BY JUDGE B. F. WRIGHT

Decision May Affect Many Other Property Owners in Ironton, Case Taken Under Advisement

One of the most interesting cases in district court was that of Hill vs. Lundbohm, heard as a court case by Judge B. F. Wright in Brainerd. Lawyers for both sides were heard and then the case was taken under advisement. The plaintiffs, Agnes I. Lamb and Carrie P. Hill were represented by Alderman & Clark and the defendant, Maud H. Lundbohm by D. B. McAlpine of Ironton.

The suit is over the alleged infringement of a clause of the deed. According to the deeds of most, if not all, the residence lots in Ironton, the property reverts to the grantor if the buyer builds a house closer than five feet of the inside line. In this case, John H. Hill, the grantor, claims that the residence of R. E. Lundbohm is only three and one-half feet from the inside line.

The house was originally built for A. A. McKay, by A. C. Glonet. The latter says that Mr. McKay instructed him to build the house in the center of the lot, according to the lines laid down by the surveyor, C. M. Pearce.

Mr. Glonet says that he followed these instructions, and that the house was seven feet from each of the side lines. But a re-survey of the lots, by R. E. Ober, so changes the building lines, that the house infringes on the five foot strip, reserved by the deed, to be free of any buildings.

The case is being watched with interest by most of the property holders in the village, as the decision may affect many residences, built on lines surveyed several years ago.

BERTRAM-FALL

Albin Leonard Fall of Brainerd
Married to Miss Alice E. Bertram
at Monticello

(Monticello Times)

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bertram on Saturday, June 25th, when their daughter, Alice Elizabeth, was given in marriage to Albin Leonard Fall of Brainerd. The double ring ceremony was read in the presence of forty guests by Rev. B. F. Buck of the Congregational church.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Clarence Sonstebly and Miss Louis Bertram sang a duet, "Until" by Sanderson, and Mrs. Sonstebly sang "Love's Sunlight," by Cadman.

The bride and groom who were unattended entered the room to the strains of "Lohengrin," march played by Mrs. Sonstebly. During the reading of the vows, the "Berceuse," from Jocelyn was played.

The bride's gown was of white canton crepe and lace. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Immediately after the ceremony a buffet lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Fall went to Minneapolis the same afternoon, and after spending a few days there and at Brainerd, they will go to Portland, Oregon.

Out of town guests were the father of the groom, Andrew Fall, Miss Mabel Fall, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fall and son Robert of Brainerd, Mrs. J. B. Holler, Mrs. Myrtle Holler, Garrea Kelley, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Bertram and Gordon Bertram all of Minneapolis and Mrs. Clarence Sonstebly of St. Louis Park.

IRONTON

Ironton, Minn., July 2.—The school election will be held on Saturday, July 15, at the high school. Candidates must file twelve days before election, and as that day came on the Fourth, July 2, was the last day to file.

Property owners are asked to turn off water hose at 9:30 p. m., as on account of the heat an unusual amount of water is used and it is impossible to keep enough on hand for fire purposes.

G. A. Franson, who for a number of years has been associated with Gust Oberg in the clothing business, has sold his interest to John A. Oberg of Deerwood.

A number of Boy Scouts are camping at Hamlet lake.

The Presbyterian church picnic held at Ellingson's cottage on Serpent lake Wednesday evening was a great success. Motor boat rides were given by Charles Beardon and C. L. Anderson.

A. H. Proctor was in Brainerd on business matters Wednesday.

E. A. Lamb, Sr., John H. Hill and Primus D. Kreitter were in Brainerd on a court case Wednesday.

Carl Dandrea of International Falls visited his family.

Miss Eva Kelley, who teaches in Williston, N. D., schools, is spending the summer with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Knight motored to Pine River.

L. R. Tanner of Brainerd and Franz Larson of Little Falls were in town inspecting the local branch of their company, the Tanner Flour and Feed company.

EASY TO CHECK SNEEZE.

As many know, sneezing may be averted by pressing firmly upon the upper lip with the fingers. The "why" of this is that by so doing we deaden the impression made up a certain branch of the "fifth nerve," sneezing being a reflex action excited by some slight impression made upon that nerve. Proof of this is seen in the fact that sneezing never takes place when the nerve mentioned is paralyzed, even though the sense of smell be fully retained.

Ancient Women Had "Rights."

In an ancient Babylon province there have been discovered records on clay tablets belonging to the period of about 2400 B. C., showing that a woman's "college" or "university" had been established in a suburb of the city called Bura, and that women had equal rights with men in commercial property and political affairs.

Decision May Affect Many Other Property Owners in Ironton. Case Taken Under Advisement

One of the most interesting cases in district court was that of Hill vs. Landbohm, heard as a court case by Judge B. F. Wright in Brainerd. Lawyers for both sides were heard and then the case was taken under advisement. The plaintiffs, Agnes I. Lamb and Carrie P. Hill were represented by Alderman P. Clark and the defendant, Maud H. Landbohm by D. B. McAlpine of Ironton.

The suit is over the alleged infringement of a clause of the deed. According to the deeds of most, if not all, the residence lots in Ironton, the property reverts to the grantor if the buyer builds a house closer than five feet of the inside line. In this case, John H. Hill, the grantor, claims that the residence of R. E. Landbohm is only three and one-half feet from the inside line.

The house was originally built for A. A. McKay, by A. C. Gionet. The latter says that Mr. McKay instructed him to build the house in the center of the lot, according to the lines laid down by the surveyor, C. M. Pearce.

Mr. Gionet says that he followed these instructions, and that the house was seven feet from each of the side lines. But a re-survey of the lots, by R. E. Ober, so changes the building lines, that the house infringes on the five foot strip, reserved by the deed, to be free of any buildings.

BERTRAM-FALL

Albin Leonard Fall of Brainerd Married to Miss Alice E. Bertram at Monticello

(Monticello Times) A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bertram on Saturday, June 25th, when their daughter, Alice Elizabeth, was given in marriage to Albin Leonard Fall of Brainerd. The double ring ceremony was read in the presence of forty guests by Rev. B. F. Buck of the Congregational church.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Clarence Sonstebly and Miss Louis Bertram sang a duet, "Until" by Sanderson, and Mrs. Sonstebly sang "Love's Sunlight," by Cadman.

The bride and groom who were unattended entered the room to the strains of "Lohengrin," march played by Mrs. Sonstebly. During the reading of the vows, the "Berceuse," from Jocelyn was played.

The bride's gown was of white canton crepe and lace. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Immediately after the ceremony a buffet lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Fall went to Minneapolis the same afternoon, and after spending a few days there and at Brainerd, they will go to Portland, Oregon.

Out of town guests were the father of the groom, Andrew Fall, Miss Mabel Fall, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fall

and son Robert of Brainerd, Mrs. J. B. Holler, Mrs. Myrtle Holler, Garrea Kelley, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Bertram and Gordon Bertram all of Minneapolis and Mrs. Clarence Sonstebly of St. Louis Park.

Easy to Check Sneeze.
As many know, sneezing may be averted by pressing firmly upon the upper lip with the fingers. The "why" of this is that by so doing we deaden the impression made up a certain branch of the "fifth nerve," sneezing being a reflex action excited by some slight impression made upon that nerve. Proof of this is seen in the fact that sneezing never takes place when the nerve mentioned is paralyzed, even though the sense of smell be fully retained.

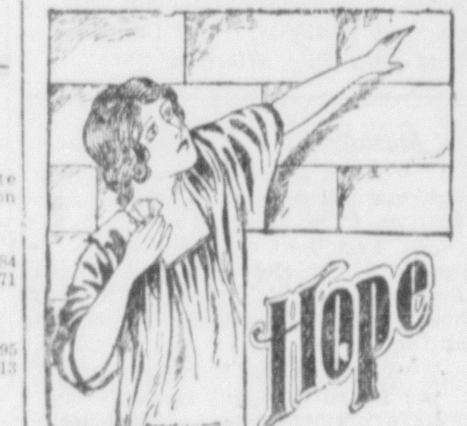

Ancient Women Had "Rights."

In an ancient Babylon province there have been discovered records on clay tablets belonging to the period of about 2100 B. C., showing that a woman's "college" or "university" had been established in a suburb of the city called Burna, and that women had equal rights with men in commercial property and political affairs.

$192,677,589 PAID
TO WAR DISABLED

The government has made a total disbursement of $226,486,981.34 in meeting both the compensation claims of former service men disabled in the world war, and the death claims of the dependents of those killed. Director C. R. Forbes, of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, announced. The disbursements for disability have aggregated $192,677,589.48, and the death disbursements $33,809,391.86.

For the month of May alone the total amount disbursed by the bureau for compensation purposes was $10,575,416, the monthly payments on disability compensation claims for that period amounting to $9,145,288, and the monthly payments to the dependents of deceased soldiers amounting to $1,430,128,660. Between June 1 and 15, the bureau mailed 221,612 checks to cover this disbursement to former service men.

The increase in the number of claims filed with the bureau has exceeded any estimate. The number of claims filed from the inception of the bureau to May, 1919, was 309,700, while on June 1, the number in file was 631,980, showing an increase during that period of 422,280. The number of awards for the second period was 323,415, an increase during the second period of 282,342. For the first period the ratio was one claim pending to every two filed. For the second period, the ratio was one claim pending to every eight claims filed.

"SMALL CHANGE"

The treasury department has supplied the answer to the age-old puzzle of how much money one would have if he suddenly were made a present of all the pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars in use. The answer is $261,319,628.

The sum represents the total amount of "small change" now in use throughout the United States. It amounts to about $3.25 for each resident of the United States.

Silver dollars totaled $77,534,548, in value and gold coin $1,035,069,120. Federal reserve notes in use amount to $2,783,000,000, national bank notes $723,094,488. Other kinds of money or tokens for money now in use total in round numbers as follows: Gold certificates, $414,000,000; silver certificates, $185,000,000; treasury notes of 1890, $1,578,000; United States notes, $334,000,000; Federal reserve bank notes $168,000,000.

TAX LEGISLATION

Republican leaders are becoming alarmed over demands reaching them from all parts of the country for tax legislation, so that the people and business may know what to expect in the way of taxation. Senator Watson of Indiana, a republican leader of the Finance committee, sounded a note of warning in the senate and it is said that a conference of republican leaders will determine what shall be done. The senate is compelled to wait for the house to initiate tax legislation. At the outset of the session, the house leaders insisted upon taking up the tariff bill before the tax bill.

Local Movies at Lyceum Tonight

The local 4th of July Movies taken by the Lyceum management are here and will be shown at the Lyceum tonight, also Friday and Saturday in addition to their regular feature picture program.

"The Rider of the King Log," the Holman Day's production of his own novel, shown yesterday for the first time at the Lyceum theatre and continuing today is a drama of adventure and romance so interwoven with the natural beauties of Maine and the great outdoors, that the very rivers seem to be playing the part of great silent friends.

The story is woven about the picturesque figure of old Kavanagh, "rider of the king log." Next to his great love for his motherless daughter, is his love for the timberlands. His river rights are usurped by a wood pulp corporation, and it is a fight, with victory for the best man. But Death claims him in the midst of his courageous stand. However, the spirit of the Kavanagh lives on in his daughter, who is given considerable aid by Dan Cupid.

Many spectacular thrills are provided by the blowing up of dams and the resultant mad rushing of the log jam down the river. Every season of the year in the North woods is shown, and every phase of lumbering, yet never once does the picture forget itself in the beauty of its surroundings or let up in the intensity of this drama.

New Park Theatre Today

"Snowblind," by the author of "The Branding Iron," is the second novel by Katherine Newlin Burt to be made into a photoplay by Gollwyn under the directorial guidance of Reginald Barker. It is a stirring love story of the Canadian Northwest, with an unusual plot in which a fugitive criminal is regenerated by a deep emotional experience.

When "Snowblind" is shown at the New Park theatre today Russell Simpson will be seen in a role quite different from his characterizations. In the cast with him are Cullen Landis, Pauline Starke and Mary Alden, besides a group of native Canadian foresters who furnish a background of reality.

"Snowblind" was made in and about the town of Banff, in North-west Canada, where the actors and actresses lived for week in several suits of woolen clothes. It is a typical Reginald Barker production, replete with strong emotional scenes and filled with outdoor views of arresting beauty.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Brainerd Dispatch:

We are now on the edge of a great invention. In the year 1861 or 60, I remember well that was when Abraham Lincoln was president. In those days there were no automobiles, no phonographs, no wireless telegraph, no air ships, no typewriters, no gasoline engines.

I believe the 20th century people will still see greater inventions. We might mention a few which have recently come under our notice, not forgetting there are others just as astonishing to which our attention has not been called.

First I believe the possibilities of wireless telegraphy and telephone messages have actually been sent by word of mouth from a battleship on the Atlantic coast and the words heard in another in the Pacific near Los Angeles. Another word message was spoken in New Jersey and heard in Scotland. I believe the time will come when we shall see wireless telegraph and telephone all over the earth in the next decade. But I know not in my time no more as I am 72 years old now.

Air navigation is almost as exciting to the imagination. It is no wild prediction to say that within a life time there shall be aircraft carrying passengers on a regular schedule from New York to San Francisco and even, I believe, across the seas, that is across the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Respectfully,

HENRY SANDS.

Editor Brainerd Dispatch:

We are now on the edge of a great invention. In the year 1861 or 60, I remember well that was when Abraham Lincoln was president. In those days there were no automobiles, no phonographs, no wireless telegraph, no air ships, no typewriters, no gasoline engines.

I believe the 20th century people will still see greater inventions. We might mention a few which have recently come under our notice, not forgetting there are others just as astonishing to which our attention has not been called.

First I believe the possibilities of wireless telegraphy and telephone messages have actually been sent by word of mouth from a battleship on the Atlantic coast and the words heard in another in the Pacific near Los Angeles. Another word message was spoken in New Jersey and heard in Scotland. I believe the time will come when we shall see wireless telegraph and telephone all over the earth in the next decade. But I know not in my time no more as I am 72 years old now.

Air navigation is almost as exciting to the imagination. It is no wild prediction to say that within a life time there shall be aircraft carrying passengers on a regular schedule from New York to San Francisco and even, I believe, across the seas, that is across the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Respectfully,

HENRY SANDS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O.
Johnson of Fifth avenue South, was this afternoon (June 25) the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season when their daughter, Miss Adena Emilia Johnson became the bride of Marcus W. Irgens, of Brainerd.
Gladiolas, roses and palms made elaborate decorations and the settings around the fireplace where the ceremony was performed was especially inviting.

Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom attended the affair.
The bride was gown in a dress of ivory satin. Over her veil she wore the wreath worn by her mother when she became the bride of Mr. Johnson. The bride's sister, Signe, attended chr. The groom was attended by his brother, Clifford. Rev. S. E.
Johnson of the Swedish Lutheran church read the ceremony. Mrs.
Harry Lindahl sang "At Dawning" ding luncheon was served with Miss nates of Gustavus Adolphus college at Mt. Iron. Mr. Irgens is now employed as a cashier in the Commercial State bank at Brainerd.

The Rhoda Roy circus band was given high praise for the fine concert

BURY THEIR GOLD

Natives of East India Have No Use for Banks.

Vast Treasures Hidden and the Secret Confided to Those Who Cannot Divulge It.

Doctor Vogel, a former superintendent of the archeological survey in India, has been telling us that the preservation of public monuments in India is largely dependent on public opinion.

It is due to the reverence and the religious spirit of the people that so much has escaped destruction, he says. But this spirit of reverence is responsible for more than the preservation of monuments; it is responsible for losses. Great treasures have vanished through fidelity and other qualities maintaining the secret of their hiding place.

It is the habit today of natives of India to bury gold. Only the year before the war it was authoritatively stated that nearly all the gold dug from the earth in South Africa is, by a fresh digging occupation, deposited again beneath the soil of India. That is what we may call a piecemeal operation; but imagine the operation conducted upon a wholesale scale!

Such things happened during the troublous days of war and conflict and raid which preceded British rule. A wealthy prince or merchant, fearing armed robbery, would deposit all his gold and jewels, not in his house or in a bank, for houses and banks could be pillaged like a bazar; no, he concealed his riches in the earth, in caverns in the hills, among the haunts of tigers and poisonous snakes.

The practice was to entrust the secret of the deposit only to the poorest and lowliest, and that for various reasons. In the first place, there was the belief in native idleness; then there was the expectation that people so poor would not covet rich treasure, and would be suspected if they did try to dispose of it; and, finally, there was the knowledge that people of such humble caste would not be allowed to converse with people of higher caste to whom the hoarded wealth would be of worth.

In this way the very outcasts of the people became guardians of wealth untold, hidden by their feeling lords, who, often enough, did not survive the broils and battles to return and reclaim their buried property.

The late Sir Maurice Gerard, who spent many years in India and investigated the subject, declared that enormous treasures are buried in some of the old Indian hill forts. The guardians are dead and the secret is dead with them.

Sir Maurice himself knew of places to which treasure traditions cling. One fastness in the Goona district was that in which, during the Marhatta warfare days, the entire population of three villages, hiding with their possessions in a hill cave, were betrayed to enemies by the barking of dogs.

Refusing to surrender, the refugees were smoked to death by fires lighted at the entrance to their retreat. No native dare enter now for fear of the demons which are believed to haunt the place.

Several English dogs were once sent in to hunt through the enchanted cave. All disappeared. Several days later the smallest of the lot, a terrier, came out starving. The others had perished, but it is supposed that this one, falling down a fissure, had found its way to a jackal's home and scratched its way out to liberty.

Not Exactly.

Aunt Jane, who was a spinster, came to visit her sister and family of four children. And from the very first auntie was very much given to offering advice to her sister on the way to feed, dress and treat her children generally. The sister listened in perfect good humor, but not so Sally, her efficient helper. And frankly, Sally said so. "Look here, Miss Jane," she began, "what do old maids like you and me know about raising children? We haven't never had none and a person has to have children to know how to raise them."

Aunt Jane smiled a tolerant smile. "Oh, not always, Sally," she returned. "Now, take those little chickens out there. Don't you think you know more than their mother? You feed—"

But Sally interrupted her. "Yas, ma'am, I feed them, if that's what you mean. But I haven't never yit taught any of them to scratch—have I?"—Indianapolis News.

Manufacturing Billiard Balls.

Quite large elephant tusks are a requisite in the making of billiard balls. They are first cut into the required length, forming blocks from which the balls are to be carved. These blocks are placed in the hands of expert carvers who mark the standard measurements of circumference, after which the block goes to the cutter and is gradually cut by machine into spherical form. The process of polishing is done after six months, during which period the balls are kept in special dark drying chambers.

Didn't Do the Expected.
"It is hard to forecast what a person will do or say under stress," said a former army officer.

"We were taking a troop train through a town in Kentucky during the war, when a sergeant came up to me and said that the town was the home of one of the men, who had been married just before he joined the army, and that if we were going to stop for any length of time, perhaps the man in question might be permitted to see his wife.

"I hustled around and got word to the wife that her husband was on the troop train. She came a few minutes before the train was ready to leave. The soldier rushed out to meet her and instead of throwing his arms around her he reached into his blouse pocket and handed her a handful of cigars! Rather peculiar thing to do after leaving your wife and enlisting and being under sealed orders that probably were taking you to France!

Boot Soles Fertilizers.

Many devices have been suggested for the utilization of old army boot soles, the chief being concerned with fuel production. But a periodical, the Fertilizer, proposes to use them for stimulating the growth of beans and peas.

The plan suggested is that of carbonizing part of the leather into lamp-black and extracting sulphate of ammonia from the residue.

Advertisers in the Daily Dispatch

Now get the same cut service as the big city dailies.

We have made arrangements with the Murray Illustrated Advertising Company of New York, for the furnishing of cuts for advertising purposes absolutely free to our patrons. This service is the best in America and has as clients some of the largest newspapers published.

Never before has it been possible for a paper to furnish this service without a considerable added outlay on the part of the advertiser, and even now it is only offered to the paper recognized by advertisers and readers as the leader in its section.

The Dispatch buys the cuts; the advertiser pays for the space in the paper at the same rate as for other advertising. Many of our patrons have already taken advantage of this offer and others are invited to do so.

We will be glad to explain the matter more fully
